

CSIA Master Sweep Check List

- Be an active CSIA Certified Chimney Sweep® credential holder
- Have held that CCS credential for 9 continuous years or a minimum total of 18 years (non-continuous)
- Complete at least 6 of the following CSIA courses and/or requirements
  - Applicant must be actively certified as a CSIA Certified Dryer Exhaust Technician®
  - Chimney Physics (either online or 2-day in-person)
  - Inspection and Report Writing ( 2-day in-person) or Diagnosis and Documentation
  - CSIA Masonry Repair for Chimney Professionals
  - CSIA Lining Masonry Chimneys with Stainless Steel
  - CSIA Rope / Roof Access
  - CSIA Advanced Masonry repair
  - NFI Core Review + NFI Specialty Review
  - Advanced Inspection & Documentation
  - Master Chimney Sweep Comprehensive Burn Wise Course
  - 12 hours of CSIA online training (not to include reviews, lining masonry chimneys, or chimney physics online)
- Have an active NFI Certification obtained through either the CSIA Installing & Troubleshooting Wood Heating Appliances class or CSIA Installing and Troubleshooting Gas Hearth Appliances class. This requirement may be substituted by an active NFI Certification held for a minimum of six years, a current F.I.R.E Certified Inspector credential or an Associate level (or higher) degree in Fire Science from an accredited college.

For more information, please visit www.CSIA.org/MasterSweep or email certification@CSIA.org